

Oak Lake Greenway

The Oak Lake Greenway begins here. This greenway is a corridor of open space managed for conservation and recreational trail activity. This greenway meanders along a storm-water management pond and the streambed of Falling Creek downstream to the Clarendon Subdivision. The greenway is open for pedestrian use only. Portions of the greenway and its environs protect wildlife corridors and vegetated buffers along the stream, creating ribbons of habitat in the midst of suburban development.

Martin Marietta Aggregates

